Meeting Held at Huntsville.—To put before the people who are mostly interested, all matters pertaining to the proposed Weber county irrigation district, the first of a series of meetings for this purpose was held last evening at Huntsville. Among the matters which were put before the people of Huntsville at the meeting last evening were the workings of the irrigation law, the basis for water allotments, assessments, vested rights and other questions which arose. The making of water allotments will begin in Ogden valley on November 10, under the direction of Dr. Samuel Fortier and his assistants. It is planned to complete this portion of the county before snow falls.

Bay Horse in Pound.—After having wandered about the streets of Ogden for a week, a bay horse, ownership unknown, was taken into custody yesterday by members of the police department. The animal was captured at the corner of Twenty-seventh street and Grant avenue. The horse has been removed to the stray pound and the owner can obtain information regarding the horse at the police station.

EX-SERVICE MEN MAY RENEW WAR RISK INSURANCE

That ex-service men who have allowed their war risk insurance to lapse may now be reinstated upon payment of two months' premium, for the months that they allowed their insurance to lapse, and the month when they became reinstated in the insurance, is the contents of a government circular received by Attorney Sam Powell.

The decision is liberalized by a new act which provides that men out of service may reinstate their policy by the payment of the two months' premium within three months following the date of discharge.

Following the three months period, the applicant for reinstatement must submit a written application for reinstatement and tender two months' payment of the policy.

A special blanket ruling has been made in order to give all ex-service men a chance to reinstate providing their applications are submitted prior to December 31, 1919, providing that each applicant is in as good health at the time of applying, as he was when discharged from service.

There will be no classes held in the Ogden public schools on Tuesday, November 11th. The board of education is convinced that public sentiment is overwhelmingly in favor of declaring Armistice Day a holiday, and hence wish to be in harmony with said sentiment. All schools, including high school, part time classes, Americanization classes and night school will suspend class work and join with the American Legion in making the day one long to be remembered in Ogden.

The Ogden branch of the American Legion deserves great credit for planning the most fitting celebration so far known in the state.

HEAVY WIND SWEEPS OGDEN AND CAUSES CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE IN VARIOUS PARTS OF CITY

Wind, which swept Ogden last night and today, caused considerable damage, with reports of further "outrages" of the turbulent element arriving all through the day.

The window of the McIntyre drug store was broken, among other windows in stores on Washington avenue, and the contents removed almost instantaneously. Damages estimated at $250 resulted at this store alone. It was remarked that a quick "fall" of the goods was made.

A large front window at the home of Mrs. Shields, at 2739 Washington avenue, was blown in.

The Healy hotel smokestack also broke loose from its wire moorings, likewise did the high tower at the Sperry mill, which was being used to convey concrete.

Electric light wires at the Bamberger depot, connected with the electric signs, were torn loose, while the Bamberger company suffered further losses when the wind practically wrecked the building in the vicinity of the car barns, near Twenty-first street and Lincoln avenue.

Nor did the street car system escape. A large tree was blown across the car tracks near the corner of Twenty-seventh street and Wall avenue, the tree obstructing traffic to such an extent that a transfer of passengers was necessitated.

Safety Zone Signs Blown Down.—Safety zone signs in the downtown district were blown down, and two or three upturned garbage and trash cans bedecked Washington avenue early this morning.

Limbs from trees were torn down in several places, and in some instances, electric light and telephone wires were put out of commission by the falling branches.

Merchants Arrange for Extensive Decorations in Ogden for the Big Armistice Day Celebration

Following efforts of B. A. Foulger and a committee of Merchants of Ogden members, arrangements for closing business and banking houses of the city for Armistice day have been effected.

Chairman B. A. Foulger, in charge of this particular feature of Armistice day celebration, stated this morning that arrangements for extensive decorations had been made, and that the majority of Ogden business houses and banks would display a quantity of bunting for the occasion.

Interest in the coming event is evidenced all over the city, it is stated. Inasmuch as there has been no official welcome for all the returned ex-service men, people seem of the opinion that they will cooperate in helping the soldiers to enjoy the day.

The football game and the races which have been arranged for the event are attracting attention and arrangements are being made for a record-breaking crowd. The police department has promised co-operation in the proper policing of all scenes of activities on that day and one of the finest celebrations that Ogden has experienced, is expected to take place.

"BETTER ENGLISH" PAGEANT IN LESTER PARK, THURSDAY NIGHT, WILL BE AN EVENT WORTH WHILE

Such unusual enthusiasm has been demonstrated the past week in the attempt to improve speech that the effort will continue the week of November 10-14. A pageant will be presented in Lester park on Thursday at 2:30. If the weather is not favorable, the program will be presented on Friday. The demonstration will not be limited to the numerous schools, but all Ogden will be there. Clubs, lodges and organizations interested in speech improvement will take part in the program. If the weather permits present plans to develop one of the most spectacular programs ever given in Ogden will be presented.

O. H. S. Appreciates Co-operation.—Ogden High school appreciates the hearty co-operation of the townsmen the past week in making the big drive for "Better English" a success. The public library, Spargo's Book Store, and the Curio Shop have displayed posters made to show the need of correct English.

Their courtesy is appreciated because it has made it possible for the citizens of Ogden to see what the pupils are really doing.

Unique Program of Stunts and Speeches.—The student body organization offered a $5 prize for the best four-minute speech on "Better English." Of the many contestants three were chosen to speak at the public program. Kenneth Malan, Mary Whittier and Mary Ensign gave most excellent speeches. The judges chose Mary Ensign a senior, as the best speaker. Interesting stunts were presented by classes and Glee clubs. Undoubtedly the best number was the mock trial of the Four Verb Brothers. The criminals had been charged with an attempt to commit murder upon the person of Miss Mother Tongue. They were, of course, found guilty and sentenced to death.

WIRE SERVICE IS CRIPPLED IN ALL DIRECTIONS BY THE HEAVY NORTH WINDS

That heavy winds of today and last night damaged telephone and telegraph lines is evidenced by reports from the Western Union offices of this city, the Postal company and the Mountain States Telephone company.

L. W. Harris, wire chief for the local Western Union offices stated that fifteen poles had been blown down between Hot Springs and Willard. The Western Union lines between Ogden and northern points were held up for more than two hours, between 7 and 9 o'clock this morning. Linemen were immediately dispatched to the scene, and communications were re-established.

Postal telegraph authorities report lines down east of Ogden. However, communications have been established to a certain extent and are now being received slowly.

The Mountain States Telephone company suffered inconvenience this morning when five poles in the vicinity of Kayville were blown down. The switching to another circuit eliminated loss of time, although the poles will have to be repaired.

Falling limbs, blown from trees, have caused considerable trouble to telephone and electric light users in this city.

It is reported that the Associated

SPENCER STONE PLAYS FOOTBALL GAME WITH BROKEN ARM

Spencer Stone, a member of the Ogden High school football team played throughout the entire East High game here one week ago with a broken arm, and played for more than three quarters of the game yesterday. Stone was unaware of the fact that his arm had been broken in the game, one week ago and, up until his first tackle in the game yesterday, the accident was unknown.

Examination by Dr. R. Kanzler showed that his arm had been broken and Stone was removed to his home where he is being attended for his injuries. He is one of the star players on the Ogden team.

BOY SCOUTS OPEN BOOTHS ON STREETS OF CITY

Boy Scouts of Troop 13, and also of Troop 16, opened booths on Washington avenue this morning, in preparation of the clean-up work for the Red Cross drive. Troop 13 is located at the corner of Washington avenue and Twenty-fourth street, while Troop 16 has opened up its booth near Twenty-fifth street and Washington avenue.

The Scouts have established a reputation for making good in their clean-up work in past drives, and it is anticipated that their efforts will be successful in the present Red Cross campaign.

ENGINEERS OF UTAH HOLD MEETINGS AT MASONIC HALL

The National Association of Stationary Engineers of Utah, No. 2, held an open meeting last evening at the Masonic temple. President A. Merrill presided at the meeting. A delegation of ten Salt Lake representatives was present.

John Gelta gave an interesting discussion of the state license law. Mr. Gelta is chief engineer at the Becker Products company. He stated that every state in the union should have similar laws as they had proved a great help in relieving the smoke nuisance.

R. L. Tomlinson, corresponding secretary of the Ogden branch of the association, gave an interesting talk on combustion and cited examples of how the smoke nuisance can be abated.

Others who were at the meeting were J. Clark, University of Utah, and F. Perre.

Following the business meeting a social hour was held in which refreshments were served.

A. J. TAYLOR TO BE THE NEXT COUNTY CLUB LEADER

The official announcement that A. J. Taylor of Box Elder county will succeed A. I. Tippetts, county club leader, was announced at the Weber farm bureau offices yesterday. Mr. Tippetts has resigned to accept a position with a farm bureau in Idaho.

AMERICAN LEGION TO MEET AT CLUB THIS EVENING

American Legion men of the general committee in charge of the Armistice day celebration, will convene this evening at the University club rooms for the perfecting of plans for the armistice day celebration.

NORTH OGDEN NOTES

NORTH OGDEN.—The Red Cross drive in North Ogden, as far as reported, was a signal success, one district (Charles Storey's) reporting 42 memberships in a list of 32 families.

James Montgomery, one of our most aged and highly respected citizens, now in his 89th year, has been quite feeble and in poor health for some time. Mrs. Alice Strong, another aged and honored citizen of the community, now over 90 years of age, is confined to her bed at the residence of her son-in-law, Scott W. Campbell.

It is a surviving member of that ill-fated belated hand cart company of 1856, and passed through untold misery and suffering in the snow-filled mountains of that time.

Because of conditions existing the local correspondent of the Salt Lake and Ogden papers is under the necessity of severing such connection wherein he has had much pleasure for a period of 29 years as correspondent with the Ogden papers and during that time has had hundreds of communications that bear the imprint of local history. SUPREME COURT REVERSES THE CHANDLER CASE, RECALLING A DEATH CAUSED BY MAD DOG

A case of more than usual interest has just been decided by the supreme court of Utah, reversing Judge A. W. Agee in the case of Emma Chandler vs. State Industrial Commission, Aetna Life Insurance company and A. M. Miller, which was up for trial in our district court some months ago.

On March 25, 1918, George C. Chandler died a violent death at the Dece hospital, caused by the bite of a mad dog on January 26, 1918, while following his occupation as delivery man for the Washington Market.

The case is most novel and unique, for the reason that the courts had never passed on a similar one. It will be recalled that George C. Chandler was a deliveryman for the Washington Market, and on January 26, 1918, while on his way from his residence on Twenty-seventh street to the garage of his employer, located on Twenty-fifth street, he had a package of meat to deliver, which had not been delivered the night before, when he was attacked by a dog which afterward proved to have the rabies, and in the fight Chandler's hand was bitten. Dr. George W. Baker was immediately called and dressed the wound, and although Mr. Chandler suffered intense pain, he regarded the matter as an ordinary dog bite and proceeded to work and continued such work day for sixty days when he was suddenly taken violently sick and was removed to the Dece hospital, where he died the following day a most violent death from hydrophobia. The widow, Mrs. Emma Chandler presented a claim for his death to the state industrial commission, and asked compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Law, but the commission declined to make an award, whereupon an appeal was taken to our district court, and a jury trial demanded, but Judge Agee held that Mrs. Chandler had no standing in the court, and was not entitled to relief and dismissed the case, whereupon Mrs. Chandler, through her attorneys, Chas. & Barker, appealed the case to the supreme court, which has just handed down its unanimous decision written by Justice Frick reversing Judge Agee and remanding the case to the district court for trial by jury.

The decision is one of far-reaching consequence and of the greatest importance to the people of Utah. It interprets the law and holds that it must be liberally construed in order to accomplish the humane purposes for which it was enacted.

also under the necessity for the same reasons to eliminate historical, family and genealogical record work that he has engaged so many years, completing so many elaborate family histories, that will in the future prove of great worth to the possessor.

Miss Della Roylance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Roylance, who underwent an operation at the Dece hospital three weeks ago for appendicitis, is still at that institution and not making very rapid progress towards recovery and will have to remain there a number of weeks. Mrs. Mary Randall, wife of Samuel M. Randall of this place, who was operated on at the same hospital for quite a severe tumor, October 16, has been removed to her home and is slowly regaining her former condition of health.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. and Myrtle Ririe Barber are rejoicing over a new arrival in their little family, a son, born Wednesday morning.

Charles W. Ellis has purchased the Solomon C. Shupe residence, but will not occupy it himself at present, but has rented it. Mr. Shupe has bought farm property in Idaho. Sandy Warren has purchased the residence property formerly owned by Bishop Thomas Wallace estate, near the public square and will make it his home, and John Henry Warren, it is reported, has bought the farm at the head of Rice Creek formerly owned by his father, the late Elihu Warren.

In football vernacular, China was defeated by the Peace Conference because she was greatly out-weighted in the line—sailors, soldiers and war materials.

LEGAL NOTICES

CITATION No. 5686.
In the United States District Court in and for the District of Utah, Northern Division.

United States of America, Libellant, vs. One Hundred Forty-Seven Sacks Fava California Fava Beans A. K. N.Y.

A Libel of Information, having been filed in the above entitled court, praying for the seizure and condemnation of 147 sacks of fava beans now within Ogden City, in the State and Northern Division of the District of Utah, each of said sacks of fava beans being marked and labeled in part as follows: "Fancy California Fava Beans A. K. N.Y."

which said libel of information charges that the said 147 sacks of fava beans, and each of them, is misbranded and adulterated within the meaning of the provisions of the Act of Congress of

June 30, 1906, known as the Food and Drugs Act, and said sacks of fava beans, and each of them, so adulterated, were shipped in interstate commerce by Adolph Koshland, from San Mateo, California, to the City of New York, in the State of New York, consigned to said Adolph Koshland, contrary to the form of the statute in such cases made and provided; that the said 147 sacks of fava beans at the time of the filing of said libel of information were within the City of Ogden, in the State and District aforesaid, in their original and unbroken packages;

And Whereas, the said Court, on the 1st day of November, A. D. 1919, did issue an order directing the United States Marshal for the District of Utah to attach and seize the said 147 sacks of fava beans, and each of them, and did fix the 6th day of December, A. D. 1919, at ten o'clock of said day, in the Court room of said court in the Federal Building, at Ogden City, Utah, as the time and place for the hearing of this libel of information, and did order that said Marshal, by publication and posting, cite the said Adolph Koshland, and all persons having or claiming, or pretending to have any right, title or interest in said property to be and appear before the said Court at said time and place aforesaid, there to make known their claims and allegations in said matter.

And Whereas, under and in pursuance of said order and the due and regular process of the above entitled court, I have seized the property herein described, and said property is now in my possession;

Now, Therefore, in pursuance of said order, you, the aforementioned Adolph Koshland of New York, State of New York, and all persons claiming or pretending to have any right, title or interest in said property, are hereby cited and admonished to be and appear at said time and place, there to make known your claims to said property, and your allegations in that behalf.
